

Disability Studies International Conference 'The art of belonging'

October 31 - November 2, 2013
Hotel Casa400, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Bert Janssen

www.disabilitystudies.nl

Disability Studies in The Netherlands and VU University Amsterdam cordially invite you to attend the

Disability Studies International Conference 'The art of belonging'

October 31 – November 2, 2013 ● Hotel Casa400, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Main theme

The art of belonging is a focus that traverses the tensions between disability experience, the art of living and belonging. Belonging is a state of mind, achieved through ongoing activity where shared spaces of interest and excitement are not only accessed, but also negotiated and ultimately occupied. A topic that is open to individual perspectives as well as to the exchange between personal and public perspectives.

Keynote speakers

Ann Turnbull | Simi Linton | Hans Reinders | Roy Brown & Robert Maier

Highlights of the conference

- Plenary keynote lectures
- Pre-conference workshops (hosted by IASSIDD Academy)
- Closing ceremony with Jetta Klijnsma, State Secretary for Social Affairs and Employment
- Art Exhibitions

Important dates

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| • Registration and call for papers | Open now |
| • Deadline abstract submission | April 8, 2013 |
| • Notification of acceptance | June 10, 2013 |
| • Deadline early registration fee | August 4, 2013 |
| • Deadline regular registration fee | October 20, 2013 |
| • Late/onsite registration fee | from October 21, 2013 |
| • Conference | October 31 – November 2, 2013 |

Highlights of Amsterdam

- Vibrant & cosmopolitan city
- Accessible & compact
- Rich cultural & historical heritage

Congress secretariat

VUmc Academy Course and congress organisation

E-mail: paog@vumc.nl

Telephone: +31 (0)20 4448444

Information and registration

Please visit www.disabilitystudies.nl

DISABILITY STUDIES

in Nederland

VU  VRIJE
UNIVERSITEIT
AMSTERDAM